A gift in memory of a loved one

Remember someone special by donating in their memory to our charity, Raising Health

Bereavement following the loss of a loved one is a difficult time. Friends and relatives may be helped a little by having something positive to focus on. Sending flowers has been a traditional way to show a mark of respect for a life now sadly passed. An alternative gesture is to celebrate their life by making a donation in their memory. A donation can help the ward or service that is most personal to you. The money will be spent on improving facilities and care for our patients, visitors and staff, helping us to provide the best possible service to all those in our care.

If you wish to make a donation in memory of someone special, please do not hesitate to get in touch with Raising Health.

Raising Health is the charity for Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust, which provides mental health, learning disability and community health services across Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland. As a lasting tribute, your gift will help us to provide those added extras which go above and beyond the core NHS funding to support patients, staff, volunteers and research.

To give you a few examples, our fundraising supports sensory rooms, patient gyms, relaxing gardens, additional equipment and gifts, toys and games for poorly children in our hospitals and within community services. Ultimately, it is about providing high quality, compassionate care and wellbeing for all.

Remembering someone who has died is a very personal thing so we offer a range of ways to give a gift in memory. Whether you would like to arrange a collection in lieu of flowers, make a one-off donation or make regular donations, we are truly touched and grateful to receive these donations at what is a very difficult time.

You may wish to leave a general gift or one that is designated for a certain ward, team or service. We promise to abide by your wishes and your donation will be allocated to them.

Opposite you will find some useful ideas.

Donations in lieu of flowers

You may wish to support Raising Health by requesting donations, in place of, or as well as flowers at your loved one's funeral. Please let your Funeral Director know if you choose to support Raising Health.

One-off gift in memory of a loved one

You can donate via our website or post a cheque to the address overleaf.

Regular giving

You can set up a regular gift in memory of your loved one. This can help Raising Health to plan for the future.

Create an In Memory page

A JustGiving In Memory page is one way in which you can do this or, alternatively, Funeral Directors can advise you on In Memory Giving pages.

Make a gift in your Will

Many people choose to leave a gift in their Will to Raising Health. Whether large or small gifts, Wills are a crucial part of our income and allow us to provide those added extras for patients. Our partners at Dunham McCarthy can make your Will free of charge when you include a gift/donation to Raising Health, the Charity for Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust. Please visit <https://dm-legal.co.uk/raising-health/> for more information.

Here at Raising Health we take your privacy seriously and we do not sell any personal data to third parties. We will only use your personal information to provide you with the products and services you have requested from us.

However, from time to time we would like to contact you with details of other campaigns or newsletters and how you can support our charity. If you consent to us contacting you for this purpose please tick to say how you would like us to contact you:
